Woodside Tavern Robbed of $17 By 3 Armed Bandits

Three men who bought two bottles of beer each, then held up and robbed a Woodside tavern proprietor of $17 Tuesday were being sought by authorities today.

Peter Doyle told sheriff's officers that the trio entered his place about 9 o'clock and ordered and drank the beer. Then two of them displayed small caliber automatic pistols and directed him to hand over the money from the cash register.

Doyle described two of the men as being dark complexioned, the third fair. He said there was no one else in the establishment at the time.

Fingerprints on one of the beer bottles left by the holdup men were being checked today in an effort to identify one of the trio.

The trio first professed to be musicians, and asked Doyle for a job on New Year's Eve.

Shortly after midnight two men bound and gagged a service station attendant in San Jose and robbed him of $30 in cash, a jacket and a suit of clothes. The victim was Mayne Graves, 24.

He told police that the two robbers were about 29 years of age and looked like brothers. Two of the three in the Woodside holdup had similar appearance.

The pair first instructed Graves to grease their car, a 1939 green sedan. When he had completed the job, one of the men grabbed him around the neck while another pressed a gun to his ribs. They ransacked several cars and the cash register.

SECURE LICENSE IN RENO

Press dispatches from Reno revealed that a marriage license had been secured there by John Linus, Redwood City painter, and Alta Blair, also of Redwood City. Linus gave his age as 46; Miss Blair, 27.

'MAN FROM MONTREAL' HERE

Reckless adventure in the rich fur country of the Canadian north-woods is offered in "Man from Montreal," which opens Sunday at the Redwood Theater.

Richard Arlen is seen as the young trapper who is unjustly arrested and charged with thefts and murder. Andy Devine, his co-star, has the role of a good-natured Mountie who comes to Arlen's aid.

Kay Sutton provides effective menace in winning Arlen's love, then using his loyalty to conceal the lawless activities of her husband, Reed Hadley, who poses as her brother. The manner in which Arlen manages to elude both outlaws and mounted police until he can secure evidence against the real criminals, keeps the story moving at top speed.

Anne Gwynne has the romantic lead opposite Arlen, and helps Devine prove the young trapper's innocence.

Mrs. Clara Filkins Passes at Age 86

Mrs. Clara Filkins of First Ave., North Fair Oaks, a resident of this community for 18 years, passed away Wednesday at a San Mateo hospital after a three-week illness. Mrs. Filkins, who was 86, had been in ill health for some time.

Left to mourn her passing are two daughters, Mrs. Lucy South and Mrs. Dora Arnold, both of North Fair Oaks, and four grandchildren, Max and Kenneth Green and Richard and Jean South. She was the widow of Robert Filkins.

Mrs. Laura Holtkant Of San Carlos Dies

Mrs. Laura Holtkant of Sheldahl Ave., San Carlos, a resident of that city for the past year, passed away early Monday at a San Mateo hospital following a long illness. She was the mother of Mrs. Lucille McKenney of Alameda, Mrs. Madeline Moltke of San Carlos and Eugene Moltkant of San Francisco.

Deputies Discover Crude Key in Cell Of Grocery Bandit

An attempted break was frustrated at the county jail in Redwood City Tuesday when jailers discovered a partially completed key secreted in the bunk assigned to Kelly Martin, 31, one of two men accused of a Redwood City robbery and kidnapping.

Sheriff James J. McGrath said the inmate Kelly Martin emphasized the overcrowded condition of the jail, built in 1917 to house 36 men, now housing 53. Because of this condition it has been necessary to house felons in the misdemeanor "tanks" on the first floor.

Martin was housed in one of these cells. At 7:30 p.m. Jailer Hugh Williams and Dep. Sheriff Jack O'Brien heard a scraping noise from the cell occupied by Martin. Investigating, they found hidden under his mattress a spoon which he was trying to fashion into a key by scraping it on the concrete floor.

COULD REACH KITCHEN
Martin had already made a hook and was believed about ready to try to pick the cell lock. Had he succeeded, he would have had free access to the kitchen where he might have armed himself with a knife to force his escape.

HE WAS TRANSFERRED
He was transferred to a cell in the juvener block on the second floor, where he may remain until a juvenile is booked at the jail when he must be moved to other quarters.

THREE MONTHS' WORK
County Executive Frederick Peterson said that bids would be opened near the end of next month for the cell blocks for the incomplete third story of the jail. The new cell block, comprising six four-man cells, will accommodate 24 prisoners and permit proper segregation of felons and prisoners convicted of misdemeanors.

Installation of the cell block will require about three months, it was estimated by Dep. County Bldg. Inspr. A. W. Russell. When it is installed, the county will advertise for bids for heating, plumbing, wiring and concrete work. The work will cost about $20,000.

Martin and William P. Sunke, 39, were arrested in San Jose Friday morning and accused of robbing the Safeway Store on Arch St., Redwood City of $70. Yesterday Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Demattels filed an additional complaint charging the pair with kidnapping Robert E. Hubby, assistant store manager, and robbing him of $1.50 at his Dumbarton Oaks home.

Martin and Sunke were arraigned before Judge Edward I. McLaughlin Tuesday afternoon. He fixed bail at $5000 cash or $10,000 bond each, and set the preliminary hearing for 10 a.m., Jan. 4.

Suicide's Relatives Located in East

Jack Rubenstein, alias Meyer Shapero, whose flaming torch death at Belle Haven City was one of the most spectacular Christmas suicides, has been identified as former manager of a prize fighter known as Kid Chisell, now living in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles police said Rubenstein had a brother named Ike, who, in 1930, ran a rooming house in Louisville, Ky., and two other brothers now living in Indianapolis. Their father operated a junk yard in Louisville, the report said. The suicide ran a newsstand for the Indianapolis Star in 1922.

1940 Toystack Has Already Begun To Take Form

With it still some 363 days till Christmas, the 1940 Community Toystack began to take form today.

The reason was the generosity of Montgomery Ward & Co. Manager Bruce Knox of the Redwood City store donated to next year's toystack all the slightly damaged, shopworn, and slightly soiled toys and dolls left over from his firm's supply this year, and, in addition, a number of toys in perfect condition which he did not wish to store away, preferring to begin with a new stock next season. Several strings of Christmas lights were included.

The articles will be kept by the Tribune and placed in 1940's toystack. Similar contributions it made during the 1940 Santa Claus to distribute to needy families in Redwood City and vicinity.

Cornell and Lederer In Comedy at S. F.

After 24 weeks in New York, Katharine Cornell in "No Time for Comedy" comes to the Curran Theater for two weeks opening Monday, Jan. 1. The actress-manager and her cast are now on a transcontinental tour which will carry them into 44 cities of 26 states, covering 14,000 miles.

In spite of its title, S. N. Behrman's latest play is a comedy, one of his smartest. It was produced by Miss Cornell in association with five dramatists of the Playwrights' Co.—Behrman, Maxwell Anderson, Elmer Rice, Robert E. Sherwood and the late Sidney Howard.

Playing comedy for the first time since she became a star, Miss Cornell is seen as the wife of a fashionable and philanthropic playwright. Francis Lederer returned from a profitable exile in Hollywood to appear opposite Miss Cornell as her wandering husband, Margalo Gillmore, who has appeared previously with Miss Cornell in "The Green Hat," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and "Flowers of the Forest." It is cast as the object of the playwright's roving affection. Others in the company are John Williams, Gee Gee James, and Larry Fletcher.

THEATER PLANS DOUBLE NEW YEAR'S EVE BILL

Seeing double on New Year's Eve, while not a new idea, will be done in a safe and sane manner this year if Manager Hal Honore's plans work out at the Fox Sequoia Theater.

Heretofore there has been a late show on New Year's Eve at the Sequoia, one night only, but this year things are going to be different, Honore says.

"Thanksgiving was moved up a week, Christmas proved a double-header, with holiday throngs seeking entertainment on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, scoring capacity audiences in the theaters. Therefore we have created a Pre-New Year's Eve celebration of late filmfare for those who can't wait till the horns start blowing. On Saturday night the closing night of the combination "Eternally Yours" and "Danger Flight," the Sequoia's box office will stay open till 11:15, with the main feature starting for the last time at 11:25," Honore said.

An elaborate New Year's Eve show on Sunday night will commence at 10:20, with "Henry Goes Arizona," starring Frank Morgan. Following this, at 11:50, Robert Winborn will take over the console of the mighty pipe organ and Honore will conduct the audience in a festive song jamboree of popular music. At midnight the New Year's siren will announce the end of the old and the birth of the New Year, following which the audience will sing "Auld Lang Syne" to accompaniment of the organ.

At 12:05 the popular team of William Powell and Myrna Loy will be screened in "Another Thin Man." Manager Honore, in closing the show, advises, "Have your rigs pick you up at 2 o'clock in the morning," and extends a hearty invitation for all Redwood City celebrators to celebrate with him (. . . at the usual prices!).

Mrs. Catherine Tims Dies; Rites Here

Funeral services will be held in Redwood City Friday morning for Mrs. Catherine Tims, former local resident who died Saturday in St. Louis, Mo., where she had lived for the past five years. Mrs. Tims was the mother of Mrs. Ernest A. Fox of Redwood City, Frank J. Tims of San Francisco and Mrs. J. R. Higgins of St. Louis.

The services will be held at 9 a. m. at the Franklin & Crowe Mortuary, followed by requiem mass at 9:30 at Mt. Carmel Catholic Church. Interment will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. The deceased's body is to arrive tonight in Oakland and will be brought to Redwood City tomorrow morning.

Dear Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

I'd like to have you tell me the difference between a Capitalist, a Laborer and a Consumer. Describe a typical example of each of these classes.

GEORGE CITIZEN

THEY'RE OFTEN THE SAME FELLER

Dear George

It's amusing sometimes to hear people waving the air and saying, "Labor does this and that" and, "Capital does this and that."

They talk as if Capital and Labor were two kinds of animals.

The cartoonists used to draw Capital as a fat man with a plug hat and dollar marks on his clothes, and Labor as a man walking to work with overalls and a dinner pail.

One was a villain and the other a hero, depending on which side of the fence you happened to be.

Then there was sometimes a third person in the picture—the Consumer. Sometimes he got soaked by a brick thrown by one of the other two.

But these days, all three are just as apt as not to be the same person—Capital, Labor and Consumer—all in one.

Most corporations are owned by thousands of small investors—not by one or a few wealthy men. My own company, Johns-Manville, is owned by about 8,000 scattered people, many of whom work for the company. General Motors is owned by about 390,000 people. American Telephone and Telegraph Company is owned by about 650,000 people.

As soon as a laborer saves a little money he can buy a few shares of stock in some company and become a capitalist. Maybe only a hundred dollars' worth. That is America! In America nearly everybody hopes to become a capitalist to some extent.

A capitalist is a man who has labored and saved more than he has spent, and who wants to "rent" his savings to some enterprise for maybe five or six cents per dollar per year. Sometimes he's unlucky and loses all his savings. Sometimes he may be lucky and get paid regular dividends which are simply the "rent" for the use of his savings.

Even if a laborer doesn't buy any stock himself he's maybe a capitalist anyway and doesn't know it; because if he has a few dollars in the savings bank, the bank in turn invests that money in some sort of business.

A man may put his savings in the company for which he works, and he may buy the products of the company for which he works and which he partly owns.

In America, these days, Capitalist and Laborer and Consumer may often be one fellow—and a very useful citizen, too, in each of his three roles.

MENLO PARK NEWS

MENLO PARK—Mrs. J. Blair, who was stabbed in an altercation in the Palm Hotel last week by A. C. Clark, will recover. After the stabbing she was taken to the Palo Alto Hospital, where she lingered between life and death for days. The attending doctors say she will soon be convalescent.

All signs for the old farmer for a rainy season have been shattered this year. There have been no acorns, no toyon berries and no flight of robins or wild pigeons from the North. When all signs fall then what? Ask Jupiter Pluvius.

The marriage of William Wilson of Santa Barbara and Miss Jane Livermore, a pretty miss of the southern city, will take place in the old mission on Feb. 4. The bride-to-be is a distant relative of the founders of the city of Livermore. Mr. Wilson is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson of Palo Alto and a brother of Mrs. Frank Maloney Jr. of Stanford Park.

A large number of friends attended the funeral services of Miss June Twohig at the Church of the Nativity. The pretty and talented girl died suddenly at a dance here Saturday night. Miss Twohig was a lovely girl who enjoyed the friendship of a wide circle of acquaintances on the Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrington, Pine St., entertained friends on Christmas. Many friends from out of town were entertained at a luncheon.

Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weeden were Mrs. Weeden's sister, Mrs. C. E. Thomas, and her niece, Mrs. Joseph Branco, and nephew, Charles Thomas of Monterey and Paul Thomas, who is employed on the S. S. Lurline; her daughter, Isabelle Weeden Lindquist, and children, Emma Roberta and Billy Lindquist, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeden Jr. of Menlo Park.

Hearing Scheduled On Assault Charge

R. C. Clark, Los Angeles painter, was arraigned on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon before Menlo Park Police Judge Edward J. Ryan Tuesday. Judge Ryan set bail at $5000 cash, $10,000 bond, and set the preliminary hearing for two weeks hence. Clark was not represented by counsel.

The 28-year-old painter, former Redwood City garage employee, is accused of attacking Mrs. Ada Clare Blair, Menlo Park, with a butcher knife early Friday. Mrs. Blair, mother of Clark's two children, is in Palo Alto Hospital. Her condition, reported critical yesterday, showed some improvement today. Doctors said they expected she would recover.

Fifteen thousand militiamen had to be called out to suppress the whiskey insurrection which broke out in western Pennsylvania when the authorities attempted to end illicit distillation.

Five Are Injured In Woodside Crash ORIENTALS AT 'DEN' ASK AID FROM 'FOE' TO HALT RIOTING

Five people were injured, two of them seriously, in a sideswipe-head-on collision Sunday evening on Canada Rd. about three miles north of Woodside. Hurt were:

Charles Preston, 26, 516 Vera Ave., Redwood City, an employee of the Port of Redwood City, who incurred serious head injuries, a fractured left arm, and lacerations of the face and right elbow.

Earl Preston, 22, his brother, numerous injuries, including probably brain concussion and a back injury.

George (Barney) Secker, Redwood City, cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Margaret Edmonds, 1694 Emerson St., Palo Alto, cuts and bruises.

Inez Lundborg, same address, her daughter, cuts and bruises.

Highway Patrolman Harold Varni said that Mrs. Edmonds told him that she was driving south when the car driven by Charles Preston, with only one one headlight, suddenly veered across the road towards her machine and she was unable to get out of his way. The Preston car turned over several times, Varni said. Secker later told the officers, Varni said, that the trio had just left "Pa's Place" and

A near-riot at the asserted Oriental gambling den at Bayshore City Tuesday spurred activities of law enforcement officers seeking to close the place.

Sheriff James J. McGrath reported two Chinese were cut by flying glass after Filipinos and Chinese engaged in a rock-throwing fight.

Condemnation of the establishment was contained in a letter received today by Grand Jury Foreman Ray Higgins from the Bayshore Improvement and Social Club.

Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell, co-operating with Atty. Frank V.

headed north to return to Redwood City. Varni said that Secker, who only recently was liberated from Redwood City jail after serving a term for drunkenness and has three drunk-driving convictions on his police record, had been drinking, but said that the Prestons had not.

The Prestons were taken to Mills Memorial Hospital in an unconscious condition, but later regained their senses.

Mrs. Edmonds and her daughter said they had been visiting relatives near the scene of the accident and had started home. They were given emergency treatment at Palo Alto Hospital.

Kington for the Bayshore Sanitary District, was preparing to file civil abatement proceedings against the establishment, which is located on the Lapachet property near the Bayshore City limits.

Eight Orientals were arrested in a raid on the place Friday night. The evidence will be presented to the district attorney's office for action, according to Sheriff McGrath.

A riot call from the place came to the sheriff's office at 6:50 p.m. Tuesday. McGrath, Constable George Krehl and Dep. Jack O'Brien answered. The sheriff reported two Filipinos attempted to gain entrance and were accused of "picking" a Chinaman's pocket. In the fight that followed, Sin Gay Chung, 26, and William Wong, 28, both San Francisco, were cut by flying glass. They were treated at Alameda Hospital.

U. S. and Canadian production of passenger cars during the 12 months ending with September 1939, totaled 2,892,000 units valued wholesale at $1,776,151,000.

Cyclists Given Final Warning

BELMONT, Dec. 27—Co-operation of Belmont bicyclists to prevent accidents because of "reckless riding" is being sought by the Belmont City Council.

At its meeting last night, the council announced it would send cards to bicycle owners and parents asking their co-operation.

Mayor Louis A. Barrett, pointing to several recent serious accidents in Belmont due to what he termed "reckless riding," said the council does not wish to pass city ordinances as have many cities, but that riding bicycles without lights and without caution "has got to stop."

"If we don't get the co-operation we expect," the mayor said, "we will have to adopt an ordinance restricting bicyclists."

Requests for council action was made by the woman's club and several other organizations as a result of two collisions in which bicycles figured, Mayor Barrett declared.

The City of Belmont, the fire, school and sanitary departments voted to install a gasoline pump in order that the four departments may get fuel at wholesale cost.

The Belmont Planning Commission, meeting briefly after the council, served notice of a public hearing, to be held Jan. 15 at the city hall, for discussion on the city's proposed zoning ordinance. The matter was before the council for preliminary discussion last night, but no official action can be taken until after the public hearing.

New 1940 Auto License Plates

Instead of the blue and gold color used during the current year in honor of the Golden Gate International Exposition, automobile license plates for 1940 will revert to the former combination of black and orange. As shown above, the new plates will carry black numerals on an orange background. The automobile is a 1940 Chrysler Windsor coupe like those in the showrooms of Dearborn Motors, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer here.

Monday at the county hostelry maintained by Sheriff James J. McGrath. A total of 52 prisoners were in the county jail that is built to accommodate a maximum of 36. Although funds have been appropriated for an addition and plans have been drawn, bids have not been sought as yet for the structure.

'White Christmas' For Redwood City

It was just about as near to being a "white Christmas" as it ever gets on the Peninsula.

With the thermometer at the official weather bureau at Fire Engine House 2 in Redwood City

Oh What a Party, Recall Commuters Of Annual Affair

A favorite topic for reminiscence today around the fireside of some 500 of the Peninsula's commuters was the annual Commuters' Christmas Party staged Friday on a Santa Claus Special.

It was a composite roar, made up of the engine's best efforts, the music of an orchestra, and the whoops of the merry-makers. All in all, it was the biggest commuter party yet given—and those who were in on the fun insist that it was the best.

The excitement started at 6:59—which isn't particularly early for a commuter—at Los Gatos. This was appropriate, as the party idea also started in that community. At each station up the line, others joined the crowd that was devouring coffee and doughnuts in the brightly decorated club, buffet and dancing cars that had been added to the regular train. Each was equipped with radio and loud speaker.

Through them all Santa Claus (Frank Louda Jr. of Redwood City) made his round distributing candy, paper hats and cigars. The orchestra kept feet moving in the dance car. There wasn't a dull moment on Old 123, even at that hour in the morning.

But it was not until the return trip in the evening that the hard-working commuters really let go for a good time. Even Santa was off duty and, in civilian clothes again, taking his part in the festivities.

Among the Southern Pacific officials on the train were H. R. Hughes, T. Louis Chess and J. M. Cardwell.

dropping to 32 early Monday for the first time this year, a blanket of frost almost heavy enough for Santa Claus to drive his sleigh over was deposited during the night on local lawns.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS ASKED ON NATION'S BUSINESS STATUS

How much business did you do this year?

Did you pay cash for your merchandise?

What is your inventory?

These are just a few of the 75 pertinent questions the census enumerators are preparing to ask you, Mr. Businessman, starting January 2, when the 60th decennial census will start.

There are 240 other questions that may be asked you, if you are in the wholesale business.

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL
But business men are urged not to become alarmed—it all is strictly confidential. Not even the federal treasury department will get a peek at the returns. All the enumerators must take oaths not to divulge any information received in the taking of the census. They are subject to severe penalties if they violate their oaths.

The data collected will be used solely for preparing statistical information concerning the nation's resources and business activities. The information, it also is promised, will not be used for the purpose of taxation, regulation or investigation.

Here are a few other questions which business firms will be asked:

Date of original establishment of business?

Is establishment affiliated with a voluntary group?

What were the net sales and other operating receipts for 1939? Export sales? Domestic sales?

How much of the sales was made through agents, brokers and commission merchants?

How much of your 1939 sales was made on a spot cash basis?

How much on ten, twenty, thirty days, or more, credit?

What accounts and notes were receivable on Dec. 31?

What was your total payroll for the year?

8 PAGE QUESTIONNAIRE
There are other questions pertaining to individual commodity sales contained in the eight page questionnaire which the enumerators will ask business heads to fill out.

The population and agriculture census will not begin until the completion of the business inventory, about April 1.

Seven Studies At Convention

Seven separate committees, comprised of businessmen and city, county and state officials, will meet during the eighth annual convention of the California Mission Trails Association at Santa Cruz, Jan. 12 and 13, Howard M. Horowitz, manager of the association, announced today.

These groups are the chamber of commerce executives, newspaper publishers, the highway committee, hotel executives, auto court owners, legislators and county supervisors, and the mayors of municipalities within the area.

After study and research of the present conditions in the Mission Trails area, which extends from Los Angeles to San Francisco, through the eight central coast counties along the El Camino Real, regarding highway improvements, tourist promotion and legislative measures, the groups will frame new plans and resolutions for the association's adoption for the coming year.

More than 500 members of the Mission Trails Association are expected to attend the convention, which will be held in the Hotel Casa Del Rey.

It's not only the Southern Pacific's commuters who have fun at a pre-Christmas party. Now the Greyhound bus commuters have taken up the idea also. The first annual Bus Commuters Party was held last Friday, when 41 Redwood City citizens who work in San Francisco rode on the decorated bus City of Redwood City. Above is shown the interior of the bus as the party got under way after a last-minute arrival of Santa Claus in the person of Bert Wainscott, local dispatcher. Below, a group of the ladies who were in the party line up for a picture just before departure. Bus Riders Stage First Christmas Party 'En Route'

Forty-one Redwood City bus commuters were back to the routine of work today after their first annual "Commuters Party" last week in which they put the finishing touch on a year of commuting to San Francisco with an all-day party.

Through the courtesy of J. W. Krug, superintendent of Peninsula Division of the Greyhound Lines, the Redwood City Commuters had a special bus which left at 7:30 a.m. Friday on a jolly trip to San Francisco, then carted them home again in the evening on an even more hilarious jaunt down the Peninsula.

The morning ride took the party up El Camino Real to San Mateo, then through the city to Bayshore Hwy. and in to the San Francisco bus depot via that highway. Driver of the bus was Jerry Steele.

Acting as Santa Claus was Bert Wainscott, Redwood City dispatcher. He introduced Josephine Giannini, who gave vocal solos, and Bob Copp, who played his accordion.

In the evening the bus stood at the San Francisco depot for two hours while the passengers made merry after their working day. It then was driven out Market St. and Mission St. to Daly City, where a street dance was held.

The ride continued down to Broadway-Burlingame, along Peninsular Ave. to Burlingame Ave. and then out to El Camino Real again for the final lap home. Driver on the evening trip was Ed Audoud of Redwood City.

Handling extensive public address system equipment loaned by Leo J. Meyberg, San Francisco distributor for RCA-Victor, was A. S. Kimberley of Redwood City. Tom Giannini was instigator of the party.

Early Solution Seen To Sewer Problems

ATHERTON, Dec. 27—An early solution to the storm sewer and drainage problems in this area, brought about each year by heavy rains, was foreseen today as the result of a report submitted to the Atherton Town Council.

City Engineer James S. James reported yesterday that he had conferred with Col. John H. Skeggs, engineer for the division of highways, regarding the storm and sanitary sewers which are to be installed along El Camino Real when the highway is widened.

At a subsequent meeting of Atherton representatives, with Colonel Skeggs, James declared a definite solution of the drainage problem can be worked out.

World production of coal is about one billion tons annually, later in the day, Undersheriff Lawrence Neri said today.
